Step 5 Review...

Return to the 5W Question page and record what occurred in the story.

5W Questions:

Who is in the story?

What is happening?

When is the story happening?

Where is Snap today?

Why did this happen?

It is important to begin building reading and writing skills early.
These 5W questions help a child establish characters, setting, and a story plot.
A story summary is a valuable skill for young readers.

The first Multimedia StoryWalk Series!

Multisensory Teaching founder Alison Luria teamed with Lilypod Media to create the first ever Multimedia StoryWalk Series: Snap and friends. This series supports multimodal learning by combining animated visuals with controlled vocabulary reading exercises. Young readers will benefit from the well-designed combination of visuals and text that capture their imagination and help them identify characters, setting, and plot. Each book in the series is progressively more challenging, supporting comprehension, fluency, and vocabulary development while enabling significant gains in basic and higher-order learning. For more information about the series visit www.gr8reader.com.
